Section 1: Definitions

- (a) Gender - shall mean a person's actual or perceived sex, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, whether or not traditionally associated with the sex assigned at birth.
- (b) Discrimination - shall mean any distinction, exclusion, restriction, or preference based on gender that has the purpose or effect of nullifying or impairing equal treatment, opportunities, or access within the Organization.
- (c) Harassment - shall mean any unwelcome conduct, whether verbal, non-verbal, or physical, based on gender that is reasonably perceived as offensive, humiliating, or intimidating, and that interferes with a member's full participation in Organization affairs.
- (d) Retaliation - shall mean any adverse action taken against a person for reporting, investigating, or participating in proceedings under this policy.

Section 2: Principle of Non-Discrimination

The Organization shall not, in any of its activities, decisions, or policies, discriminate against any person on the grounds of gender. All members and applicants for membership shall enjoy equal rights and obligations, and no gender-based criterion shall be applied to:

- (a) Admission, renewal, or termination of membership;
- (b) Eligibility for appointment to any committee, task force, or delegated body;
- (c) Nomination, election, or tenure in any executive or leadership office;
- (d) Access to Organization facilities, events, programs, or publications;
- (e) Award of any honor, certificate, or benefit conferred by the Organization.

Section 3: Prohibition of Gender-Based Harassment

No member, officer, or agent of the Organization shall engage in, condone, or facilitate gender-based harassment. Harassment shall include, but is not limited to:

- (b) Unwanted physical contact or advances;
- (c) Derogatory or demeaning statements concerning a person's gender or gender identity;
- (d) The creation of a hostile, intimidating, or offensive environment through gender-related conduct.

Section 4: Duty to Promote Gender Inclusivity

The Executive Committee shall be obligated to take proactive measures to ensure gender balance and inclusivity, including:

- (a) Using gender-neutral language in all official documents, correspondence, and resolutions;
- (b) Collecting and publishing, on an annual basis, anonymized gender-disaggregated data on membership, leadership, and participation, provided such data collection complies with applicable privacy laws;
- (c) Reviewing Organization policies and practices at least once per calendar year to identify and remedy any systemic gender-based disparities.

Section 5: Protection Against Retaliation

No person shall be subjected to retaliation, victimization, or adverse treatment for:

- (a) Lodging a complaint in good faith under this policy;
- (b) Providing information or testimony in the course of an investigation; or
- (c) Assisting in the enforcement of this policy.
